oOo

MR. POWERS: Before we start, I just want to make a reservation of rights for the witness to review his transcript pursuant to Federal Rule Civil Procedure 30-E.

MR. SMITH: What transcript are we talking about?

MR. POWERS: This one here.

MR. SMITH: Oh, sure, sure. No problem.

EXAMINATION BY MR. SMITH:

Q. Sergeant, just for the record, can you just state your name and your business address?

A. Sure. John Inzeo. The address is 475 North Avenue, New Rochelle, New York 10801.

Q. What is your current position with the New Rochelle Police Department?

A. I'm a retired police sergeant.

Q. How long have you been retired for?

A. About a year and a half.

Q. What was your assignment when you did work

SERGEANT JOHN INZEO

A. No, not that I know.

Q. At that point there was nothing preventing one person giving the placard for another person to park in that lot?

A. It's possible.

Q. In other words, my question, I guess, would be, any vehicle with a placard could be parking in that lot as long as it had a placard?

A. Yes.

Q. But what Mr. Williams told you when he booted the car, there was no placard?

A. Correct.

MR. SMITH: I have no further questions of Sergeant Inzeo.

EXAMINATION BY MR. POWERS:

Q. Sergeant, with respect to the Safeway contract, did you have anything to do with the negotiating the terms of that contract?

A. No.

Q. With respect to this incident here that Mr. Smith was just talking about, did you actually see the permit in the car?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you ever make any racial comments to

SERGEANT JOHN INZEO

Mr. Williams at all?

A. No.

Q. Ever tell Mr. Williams that he was raping their kids?

A. No.

MR. POWERS: That's all I have.

MR. SMITH: Nothing further for me.
